November Remembrance Of Our Dead

November is the month associated with praying for all our beloved dead. It is the time when we invite you to place the names of your loved ones on lists so that they can be included in the Masses during this special month. As we are unable to gather in Church for public masses, envelopes for these lists of names can be picked up in Knockerra Church which is open daily for Private Prayer, in Killimer Church each Sunday from 12 noon to 6 p.m., in Powers' Shop, Knockerra and the Ferry Shop, Killimer. All envelopes can be returned through the letter boxes in each church and also can be placed in the box at the post office in Kilrush.

Reflection - Containers of Divine Love

God of affection, devotion, passion, tenderness, and all forms of love, this day we thank you for the myriad ways that we have been given a touch of your goodness. We thank you for your many beneficent gestures: ...

love that draws us to friendship and fidelity,
love that leads us to kindness and compassion,
love that stirs in our flesh and dances in our bones,
love that lures us toward the sacred and serene,
love that calls us to new vision and growth,
love that soothes our heartaches and gentles our pain,
love that sees worth in each human being,
love that believes in us and whispers with hope,
love that sings in the seasons and sighs in the wind,
love that taps on the door of forgiveness,
love that longs for peace among all humankind,
love that surprises and fills us with awe,
love that sings praise for the face of earth's beauty,
love that offers the hand of warm welcome,
love that respects those who won't come too near,
love that urges us to take risks and have courage,
love that goes out to those from afar,
love that embraces the shadow in us,
love that sheds the old skin and welcomes the new,
love that ripens our souls for the final journey home.
Source of Love, we offer thanks for how you are abiding in all these forms of love.

Autumn is over and Winter approaching.

We thank God for the fruits of the earth. We thank farmers and horticulturalists who cultivated the land. The number of cases of coronavirus has increased in Ireland. The Government has introduced new restrictions. We must understand that this virus is a threat to us and to our families. Now is the time for each of us to act. Many are very worried and afraid of the virus. This simple prayer of St. Teresa of Avila can help us.

Let nothing disturb you,

Let nothing frighten you,

All things are passing: God never changes.

Patient endurance attains all things

Whoever has God lacks nothing;

God alone suffices.

Amen.

Jesus himself said, "Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." (Matthew 11:29-30)

All Saints by Christy Kenneally

I know a lot of saints, I do! So let me mention just a few;

I know someone who runs a team and teaches kids to play and dream, who stands in cold and wind and rain, on days they play and nights they train:

Someone who's there when we are sad, the best and gentlest friend we've had,

Someone who says, 'Just do your best', when I am scared to take a test;

A friend who takes the time to show how things were done so long ago;

A teacher who just always knows where that comma always goes;

And others who are kind and good, who try to act as Jesus would,

who show God's love in all they do. I know a lot saints, don't you
