Feast Of The Assumption

This Tuesday 15th August, we celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady into Heaven. In Ireland it is also known as Lá Fhéile Muire san Fhómhar. The Irish people loved this feast. It was great day of celebration as they were aware that they now had an advocate in heaven. Let us have the same confidence in the power of Our Lady. Mary was assumed body and soul into heaven.

O Glorious, gracious, beautiful Virgin

You are my sustenance, my store, my treasure,

You are my star of knowledge, leading me on my way.

And in this valley of tears, may you be my friend.

Amen

This week's winner is John Madigan.

Killimer Local History Group

This week we have put in place the fourth in scripted boulder, which is situated in the Killimer Church Carpark. This records the origin and history of the townland of Carradotia. We hope to continue recording the history of each townland in the same way if funds become available. We are launching a website on this Wednesday to coincide with Heritage Week. The link to the website will be on our Facebook page on the evening of the launch. It will be an ongoing project to which we will be constantly adding general information relating to our parish. Anyone who wishes to contribute anything relevant to the site can do so by contacting any member.
