Killimer GAA

On Saturday, 28th February the Junior A Victory Social took place at the Armada. We would like to thank all who attended to help the team and management celebrate their great success. MC Jimmy King kept the assembled crowd engaged with his knowledge of Gaelic Football and our club history. His personalised introductions really made the event extra special for our heroes. Thank you, Jimmy. Joint Captains Liam Culligan and Odhran Cunningham recalled the highs of 2025 along with outlining their hopes for the upcoming season. Club chairman Seán Troy and manger Seán Haugh were eager to acknowledge all who helped on the road to victory and spoke of the importance of the support that the club receives from so many people, in so many ways.

Our guest of honour was former Clare manager Colm Collins. He had the highest of praise for our club and was delighted to be part of the celebrations. Our late President Tommy O'Driscoll was remembered. Thank you to Amy Griffin for creating a PowerPoint presentation that was a very fitting tribute to a great clubman. May he rest in peace. The 2001 minor team and management were also honoured. Huge thanks to Antoinette and Paddy Carmody for generously sponsoring their medals. The presence of the 2001 team and management greatly added to the evening. Here's to more good times, in 2026, for our club!

Thriving Through Change: Food, Hormones & Energy

18th March, Vandeleur Gardens, 6.30pm-8.30pm

An upcoming free workshop at Vandeleur Gardens, called, 'Thriving Through Change: Food, Hormones & Energy' with tutor, Fionnuala Ni Mhairtin.

This will be an opportunity for women to learn how food influences hormone balance, particularly when navigating perimenopause, menopause or post menopause.

This practical workshop will offer science-backed, easy-to-use tools to help feel more balanced, informed and supported. To book a place just email us
