Killimer GAA

Killimer played Coolmeen in the Division 4 League Final, on Saturday, 11th July, in Kilmihil. It was a match that had everything - glorious weather, a pitch in perfect condition and two teams that very much wanted to be champions. Both sides had periods of dominance and for a while it seemed that it may not be Killimer's day. However, as we have seen on many occasions, this team refuse to give up and this never say die attitude saw them being crowned winners. The final score of 3-10 to 0-18 shows how tightly contested it was. The Killimer fans were delighted to see Captain Ódhran Cunningham accept the cup on our behalf. He took the opportunity to acknowledge all who support the club. We want to thank the management and players for their dedication and to congratulate them on their latest success. We will celebrate their victory later in the year but for now it's all eyes on the Championship. Best of luck with the preparations to them all. Glas agus Ór go deo.
